

As Ruth has not been well, I've had to do a lot of gardening! And one of the joys is to see the flowers come up every year. This year, one delight has been a clematis called Crystal Fountain which we bought last year. It is so beautiful it takes your breath away!

So amid the pain and suffering, look at God's creation in the beauty of nature to bring some peace to our hearts. One of the poems I had in my A level English exam began "I think that I shall never see a poem as lovely as a tree" (my mother knew it as a song though I'd never heard of it). It ends with " Poems are made by fools like me, but only God can make a tree".

I think I'll change that to "Only God can make a Crystal Fountain clematis."
God bless and take care. Jeff
